ABOUT THE ACADEMY OF INTERACTIVE ARTS & SCIENCES

The Academy of Interactive Arts & Sciences (AIAS) was founded in 1996 as a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to promote, advance and recognize the outstanding achievements in the interactive entertainment industry worldwide. The Academy conducts its annual awards show, the D.I.C.E. Awards, to celebrate and honor creative accomplishments in the field. To further enhance awareness of the Academy's vision, the organization created the D.I.C.E. (Design, Innovate, Communicate, Entertain) Summit in 2002, a once yearly conference dedicated to exploring approaches to the creative process and artistic expression as they uniquely apply to the development of interactive entertainment. In 2013 the Academy launched D.I.C.E. Europe in London to cater to the European games market. We have more than 33,000 members, including Electronic Arts, Microsoft, Sony, Nintendo, Wargaming, Bethesda Game Studios, Ubisoft, Valve Software, Double Fine, Gearbox Software, Nexon and Insomniac Games, among others.

TESTIMONIALS FROM SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

It was a wonderful rare chance to attend a conference with my husband. The venue (Barcelona, Spain) was beautiful, the conference organizers and staff were amazing and supportive and the bonus, was getting to meet other spouses.

Mel T.

D.I.C.E. Europe was a fantastic event that allowed me to get a glimpse of my s.o. hard at work, as well as meet the other spouses who support them. They took the time to weave us in throughout the day with amazing activities like a tour of the gothic quarter, jamon and wine tastings, and join our partners in the networking sessions. Barcelona was a beautiful setting for all of this to take place... So beautiful that he popped the question during D.I.C.E. Summit!

Emi B.

My wife is always travelling to conferences and I've never had a chance for various reasons. But this time I couldn't resist Barcelona, the W Hotel and the city are amazing. It was nice to have a chance to join my wife on a business trip and spend time with her.

Andrew A.

Barcelona is a very unique city where the Middle Ages easily mix with the Modern. I loved seeing the Picasso museum and viewing the incredible architecture of Gaudi. D.I.C.E. Barcelona is a fantastic way to meet new people in the industry and to experience a thriving city. I strongly recommend it.
